

LUDWIG H. JUNGNICKEL TIGER UM 1930

€5.500,00

Tiger, Ludwig Heinrich Jungnickel (1881-1965), ca.
1930, carbon and watercolor, signed

Ludwig Heinrich Jungnickel was one of the most famous co-workers of the Wiener Werkstatte. His most renowned work is the frieze in the children's room of the Palais Stoclet in Brussels. Furthermore, Jungnickel was awarded several times: graphics price at the International Art Exhibition in Rome 1911, gold medal in Amsterdam 1911, state price in Leipzig at the International Exhibition for book works and graphics 1914, Austrian State Price for fine arts and the golden medal of honour of the "Genossenschaft der bildenden Künstler Wien" 1930.

The Graphics Collection of the Albertina in Vienna and the State Museum Joanneum in Graz dedicated several exhibitions to him.

