Dimensions

11 × 15 cm

Around 1900, Nikolaus Kannhäuser was one of the most talented vase painters at the ceramic manufacturer Amphora. This filigree beauty is a perfect example of Kannhäuser's work.

Inspired by the "Mucha style", the portrait of a woman, with delicate flowers and leaves in her hair, is surrounded by a golden forest. The relief-like applied glaze, gives the vase its striking depth.

Our delicate ceramic vase is a wonderful testimony of the Art Nouveau period.
